

Chapter 1

In Which

Noah Arrives

Deep in a cosy little forest, the world grew a little brighter on Thursday, the 14th of March, 2024, when Noah Alexander Bennett arrived at 3:51 in the afternoon.

“This calls for a celebration,” said the Little Teddy Bear, and off he went to share the wonderful news.

The baby animals gathered one by one, the shy bunny wiggled with excitement and the cheerful squirrel twirled around in happy little circles.

And so, Noah’s story began surrounded by love, gentle joy, and the promise of many sweet adventures to come.
